

SAFETY TRAINING PROGRAM

Amy Riley
MASC Safety Technician
(303) 497-4486

Course Outline

- Training Requirements
- Attendance Records or Rosters
- Training Topics
- Training Resources

Attendance Records or Rosters

- Attendance Rosters are used to help document the training and give proper credit to those receiving training
- Records should be kept for 5 years within each worker's history jacket, this is an OSHA requirement, and all copies shall be made available to all employees upon request.

Training Topics

- Accident Reporting
- Hazard Communication
- Office Safety
- Emergency Action Plans
- Fall Protection
- Working Alone
- Asbestos

Training Topics Continued

- Working Walking Surfaces
- Electrical Work Practices
- Compressed Gases
- Fire Protection
- Flammable/Combustibles
- Welding/Hot Work
- Machine Guarding

Training Topics Continued

- Lockout Tagout
- Cranes, Hoists, and Slings
- Motor Vehicle Safety
- Forklift Safety
- Confined Space Entry
- Hearing Conservation
- Respiratory Protection
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

Training Topics Continued

- Indoor Air Quality
- Ergonomics
- Emergency Response Agreements
- Laser Safety
- Hand and Power Tools
- Ionizing and Non Ionizing Radiation

Training Resources

- Individual Advanced Training (job-specific) is available at -http://www.keller-itc.com

- The MASC Safety Office

Amy Riley

303-497-4486

Amy.E.Riley@noaa.gov

Rhonda Carpenter

303-497-3912

Rhonda.S.Carpenter@noaa.gov